Guilty Verdict Issued Against Battery Suspect

Dyer C. Rebadow was found guilty of battery and sentenced to 180 days in the County Jail Tuesday morning by City Judge Otto B. Willett. Rebadow 33, of 1227 Crenshaw Blvd., failed to appear in court last Thursday and was brought in on a bench warrant issued by Judge Willett. He was charged with beating James Hale, of 2410 Madison St., several weeks ago following a ruckus at Hale's home. Hale was found not guilty of battery against Rebadow last week.

A companion of Rebadow, Gordon Poapst, of the Park Hotel, is slated to appear in court this afternoon to answer charges of battery on Hale. Judge Willett suspended 20 days of Rebadow's sentence and recommended that the jail time be spent at Wayside Honor Farm.

Five Teachers Added To School Payrolls

Three elementary and two secondary teachers were put on the payroll by the Torrance Unified School District Tuesday night by action of the Board of Education. Hired were Bonnie Flo Buerkens, Al H. Fuller and Ruth A. Malone, elementary, and Creed H. Jenkins and Charles Packard, secondary instructors.

AUTO-BIKE VICTIM... Eleven-year-old Tommy Ball of 1608 W. 203rd St., apparently rode his bike into the side of a passing car near his home Monday afternoon and was hurled to the pavement, suffering minor leg injuries. Tommy is shown being comforted by Mrs. Oren P. Davis, wife of the car driver, and an ambulance attendant. Tommy refused a ride to the hospital, went home instead.

Motors, Midgets Invade Carrell

It's motors and midgets again this weekend at Carrell Speedway with the roaring motorbikes of the AMA holding down the track tomorrow night and the mighty CRA midgets on tap for Saturday evening. Racing director Don Basile has posted a prize for the first pilot to crack a 23.83s. timing once around the oval.

Saturday night is Northrop night and six lovely beauties will be on hand to award the honors to heat and race winners. Eight events comprise the card. Time trials start both nights at 7:15, with first races slated to get the green flag at 8:30.

Art Sielaff Elected Chairman Of First Methodist Church Board

ART SIELAFF Church Board Chairman

By unanimous vote of the 35 members present, Art Sielaff was elected chairman of the official board of the First Methodist Church of Torrance at its regular session Aug. 13 at the church.

Sielaff succeeds Charles Wallace, who moved to Arcadia this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Sielaff came to California from Minneapolis, Minn. two years ago, and since June 1951 have made their home at 2524 Maricopa.

The board took two other major steps. Adopted was a recommendation of the Board of Education to begin an enlarged program Oct. 1. This consists of an early worship service for youths and adults at 9 a.m. with church school classes for children at the same hour. At 10 a.m. the adults and youths will be in classes while the children continue their activities. At 11 a.m. will be the usual morning worship.

Also adopted was the recommendation of the building and finance committees to complete the organ fund and to remodel the organ fund and to remodel the church. This organ fund program is scheduled to begin Oct. 19. A committee was appointed to plan a celebration of the publication of the Revised Standard Version of the entire Bible in Sept. 30.

DR. BENSON TO ADDRESS NAZARENES

Dr. Erwin G. Benson of Kansas City, Mo., field secretary for the department of church schools of the Church of the Nazarene, will be the speaker at the Torrance Church of the Nazarene Sunday evening at 7:30 services, according to Rev. Freeman A. Brunson, pastor.

Dr. Benson is national president of the Christian Service Training Guild of the church and is editor of the "Church School Builder," a promotional magazine devoted to the interest of the church schools in his church. Prior to entering the field of Sunday school promotion, Dr. Benson served as executive field secretary of the Pasadena Nazarene College for 11 years and taught a number of courses in Christian education.

Hundreds Register To Vote in Drive

Hundreds more Torrance residents will be eligible to vote next November because of the efforts of the Ballot Battalion last week-end. Registration tables set up under large umbrellas in the downtown district of Torrance attracted a steady stream of citizens registering for the privilege of voting.

Volunteers from the Torrance Kiwanis and Rotary clubs traveled the streets in pairs explaining to passersby that they could register with a minimum of effort at the sidewalk booth. The procedure will be repeated next week-end, according to Jack Dabbs, chairman of the Ballot Battalion. Volunteers from the Torrance Lions Club and Optimist Club will assist in keeping the registrars' tables busy during tomorrow and Saturday, he said.

During the week, residents may register at the City Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sept. 11 is the final day one may register for the presidential election. To assist those who are in doubt about their status for the election, Dabbs yesterday pointed out the seven conditions which mean one must register.

- 1. Changed address since last registered. 2. Changed your name. 3. Desire to change your political party. 4. Your registration was canceled if you did not vote at either the June primary or the November general election in 1950. 5. Youths who have become of age. 6. New residents of Los Angeles County must have the following qualifications: One year's residence in the state, 90-day residence in the county, 21 years of age. 7. A naturalized citizen must have been a citizen for at least 90 days prior to date of election.

Officer Injured As Motorcycle Forced Off Road

An off-duty Torrance police officer riding home on his motorcycle escaped serious injury Monday evening when he was forced off the road, dumping him off his cycle onto the soft shoulder, according to police reports.

Officer Bob Lewis said he was traveling east on 190th St. near Yukon Ave. when a car made a left turn without giving a proper signal and forced him to head for the tall timber.

Lewis dumped his cycle after hitting soft dirt, severely bruising one leg. Driver of the car, Robert Curry Brown, 34, of 4156 W. 165th St., was cited for making an improper turn and for failing to give an adequate turn signal. He also failed a balloon sobriety test administered by officer Joe Miles and reserve officer William King and was booked on suspicion of drunk driving. Miles reported Lewis slid his motorcycle some 64 feet before bringing it to a stop.
